

Then he quietly asked,
“Abbu... If Allah is everywhere...
why do we pray towards the Kaabah?”

Khalid closed his Qur'an gently. He smiled once more.
“That...is a beautiful question.”

Khalid leaned back in his chair. For a moment, he simply looked at his son. Not with frustration.
Not with disappointment. But with kindness.

“My son, do you know what makes me happiest?”

Zayd shook his head.

“That you came to ask.

You could have stayed silent.

You could have pretended to understand.

But instead... you came looking for the truth.”
