

Do you know what was wrong with what Iblis said?"

Zayd shook his head.

Khalid said gently, "It wasn't that he was made of fire. It wasn't that Adam was made of clay. Those were facts. The mistake was in his heart. His pride prevented him from acknowledging that Allah made him bow to someone whom he saw as inferior to him."

"Iblis was powerful. He could have been one of the closest to Allah. But pride entered his heart. He thought he was better than Adam. So he refused to obey. He refused to acknowledge Adam, peace be upon him."

Khalid leaned forward.

"And people still make that same mistake today."
