

Do you know the difference between a mistake and a failure, Zayd?"

Khalid asked softly. "Iblis made a mistake, but his real downfall was pride; he let his error define him and turned away.

But the beloved servants of Allah are not those who never fall. They are the ones who, every time they stumble, use the ground to push themselves back up.

"Perfection is for Allah. For us, beauty is in returning."

Zayd listened closely, his heart feeling lighter with every word. Khalid smiled and added, "So don't stay in the dark of your thoughts. Turn to Allah, learn, grow, and keep trying. He sees every step, every effort, and every heartfelt dua."

Zayd nodded, a small but genuine smile appearing. He felt hope begin to bloom in his heart.