

♥ MERCY ♥

Everything that we have is an act of mercy from our Lord
So be merciful to others, and be merciful to ourselves.

MERCY is a heartfelt story about a father and son learning from one another. This collection, which includes The Balance, The Boy Who Asked Too Much, and MERCY, reminds us that worth is not measured by perfection, but by humility, perseverance, gratitude, and the Mercy of Allah. Through the guidance of his father, Khalid, young Zayd discovers that falling is not failure. True balance is found in rising again with repentance, hope, and faith. Whether grappling with self-doubt in The Boy Who Asked Too Much, where Khalid shows him the strength in questioning through Prophet Ibrahim (PBUH), or facing personal illness and the pressure to prove his worth in MERCY, Zayd learns a timeless truth: all gifts—effort, patience, intelligence, and the strength to continue—are from Allah.

Built on Islamic values
of hope, tawbah,
and perseverance

Encourages
meaningful conversations
between parents
and children

A gentle story
that nurtures
faith and emotional resilience

Perfect for bedtime, family
reading, and
classroom
discussions

THE MERCY SERIES

*Stories that heal.
Values that stay.*

